Membership has its benefits.

When you become a member of the ODHA, you benefit from belonging to your provincial Association and add strength to advocacy and lobbying efforts. Get connected and have access to some of the best corporate discounted benefits and services available.

Join ODHA for benefits that make you smile!

In a typical day, you could be using a number of ODHA services that can save you considerable time and money – from planning a trip to joining a fitness club.

Maybe you've been putting off your quality assurance activities and the deadline is fast approaching – there's lots of professional development to choose from. Whatever you need, ODHA can help with this and more when you sign up or renew as a member. Join ODHA for services and benefits that make you smile!

Simply the BEST.

One of the most important benefits is malpractice insurance, which is included in your membership fee at no extra cost. ODHA offers the best malpractice insurance coverage in the province with $5 million aggregate, plus $75,000/year for disciplinary legal fees (more than CDHO requires). You may never have a claim against you, but with the most comprehensive insurance coverage, it gives comfort knowing everything you do as a health-care professional is protected. A full range of personal insurance is also available at special group rates.

Homerun.

Advent Mortgage Services is the #1 mortgage broker in Canada by volume. ODHA members receive a further .05% reduction off the industry's best available rate. Now that's something you can smile about.

A phone call away.

Receive free confidential telephone advice through Legal-Line; covering a wide range of issues from employment to family.

Magnify your vision.

ODHA members receive a special discount for loupes from Orascoptic. Products available focus on magnification, illumination and ergonomics.

Get dressed for less.

ODHA offers a number of discounts on uniform essentials to keep you working in comfort all day long. Member discounts are available for Agio compression socks and hosiery, Aligned posture shirts, plus a discount at Mark's Imagewear.

Members also receive discounts from One Tooth Activewear and SoftMoc. Additional discounts on clothing online like Dynamite, Adidas, Pennington's, and many more are also available through Perkopolis – another fantastic member benefit that is easy to use and provides you with access to a variety of discounted products and services.

Knowledge is power.

Online learning courses, webinars and live events are always available for your professional development. These opportunities are new, relevant and current, keeping members up to date on the latest profession innovations, legislative changes, research and industry trends. Special lower member rates for the Re-energize Conference, courses and QA Coach. ODHA professional development offerings can be used towards your QA program requirements.

Drive on a dime.

Take your next road trip with confidence with ODHA's exclusive corporate discount with the Canadian Automobile Association (CAA). For over 110 years, CAA has been helping Canadians stay safe, mobile and protected. You can drive worry-free knowing help is just a phone call away if you need it. Special discounts and the highest levels of service on car and moving truck rentals are also available to ODHA members through Avis or Budget. Get discounts on fuel and car washes too with savings at Shell.

Stay fit. Stay healthy. Save money.

ODHA members have access to the biggest corporate fitness program in Ontario at significantly reduced rates. ODHA continues to offer the best cost saving Corporate Wellness Program with GoodLife Fitness Clubs and Women's Fitness to all ODHA members and family members.

For the fun of it.

Entertainment made even better with ODHA - receive special member pricing on admission to Canada's Wonderland and Cineplex. Additional discounts to attractions such as museums, concerts, sporting events, and restaurants are also available through Perkopolis.

Stay connected.

Several venues, programs and tools are used to represent and promote the profession, and keep members informed and involved:

- Website resources/career opportunities, surveys and advice
- Social media and e-bulletins
- Online publications – Focus and Research & Product News
- ProvinciaLINK information updates
- Public awareness campaigns
- Advocacy, lobbying and government relations
- Always a live voice when you call the ODHA

Strength in numbers.

ODHA is stronger in its representation with your membership support and can ensure that decision makers at all levels of government, and allied health organizations, know and understand the issues affecting the profession of dental hygiene.
